Day For Life
Mandatory

As we welcome Fr. Kevin to our combined parish let us remember that there is much to be done to successfully maintain what we already have and a great deal more if the two distinct parish identities are to be sympathetically merged to become one identity, with perhaps two personalities.

I am most grateful to all in both parishes who have helped keep things going during these last five months and most especially to the people here at Mablethorpe for helping me to keep Saint Joseph's open and operating as best we could since my appointment as Parochial Administrator in July 2018. I must especially thank those who went the extra mile to keep us going through lockdown and then the period of restricted access worship. Without you we would not have survived.

As we enter this new era, I know that you will support your parish and your new parish priest. May God bless us all.

Deacon Roger
